December 7, 2009 (Ft. Lauderdale, FL) – PrimeTime Amusements, the Master Distributor for Falgas kiddie rides in the United States and Canada is proud to announce that Falgas was awarded First Prize for Best New Product in the Coin-Operated Kiddie Ride category for their innovative new ride – “60’s Surf Van”, featuring “The Shark Bite Game”. The award was presented to Falgas at this year’s IAAPA Expo in Las Vegas.

Combining a great ride with interactive game play, the “60’s Surf Van” is the latest in a series of combination kiddie ride/interactive games that began with the introduction of the “Pirate’s Boat” a little over a year ago.

“We are extremely proud to represent Falgas kiddie rides. Their commitment to excellence is unsurpassed in the industry, and we congratulate them for receiving this well-deserved award,” stated Paul Jacobs, PrimeTime’s V.P. of Sales and Marketing.

Founded in 1960, and based in Girona, Spain, Falgas Comercial S.L. is the world’s foremost kiddie ride manufacturer. The company offers a wide variety of over one hundred kiddie rides and attractions (including their ever popular trains on tracks) suitable for use in arcades, family entertainment centers, amusement parks, zoos, museums, schools, shopping malls, supermarkets, department stores, and a host of other venues.

PrimeTime Amusements is South and Central Florida’s premier operator of quality music and games in high profile locations such as the world’s largest McDonald’s restaurant, Universal Orlando Resorts, NASCAR Sports Grille, TGI Friday’s Front Row, Xtreme Indoor Karting, and many more. The company also imports a variety of products from Europe for exclusive distribution in the U.S. and Canada, including Falgas kiddie rides.
